MINAMI

BIO

Native in French and Japanese, fluent in English

French/Japanese actress, Minami is known mainly for her performances in Vision (2018) alongside Juliette Binoche and Minamata (2020) playing the female lead opposite Johnny Depp.

Born in Tokyo, Minami started her career at 13 with a role in Battle Royale (2000). She has since worked with a wide array of important directors in Japan including Yukio Ninagawa (Erendira, 2006), Mika Ninagawa (Sakuran, 2007), Masanori Tominaga (Vengeance Can Wait, 2010), Hideki Noda (the Character, 2010).

After acting in more than 20 plays and 40 movies and TV series in Japan, Minami moved to Paris in 2014 with the support of the Japanese Ministry of Culture, to pursue further acting studies and to expand her career internationally.

Minami now splits her time between Los Angeles, Tokyo and Paris.

Minami is also a painter. Her art has been exhibited in international galleries. She is also an accomplished dancer, practicing classical and contemporary technique.
